The core business of the European Commission's Service for Foreign Policy Instruments (FPI) is to put the EU's foreign policy into action – fast and flexibly – in a policy-driven approach. The Service deals with the regulatory and financial aspects of EU foreign policy. It acts as first responder to foreign policy needs and opportunities, focusing on conflict prevention and peace as well as on leveraging the EU's influence in the world. It also supports initiatives on global, trans-regional and emerging threats and the Service acts as administrator and performs the financial tasks of the European Peace Facility in relation to assistance measures with military and defence implications.

The Service plays a crucial role in translating the European Commission's political priorities into external action, in line with the EU's Global Strategy for Foreign and Security Policy.

The Service reports directly to the High Representative/Vice President. The Service works in close cooperation with the other Commission services, as well as with the European External Action Service (EEAS), both in headquarters and in delegations.

FPI staff around the globe are proud of the work they are achieving and have a strong sense of purpose and motivation. They take, and value, a high level of personal responsibility. A policy-driven approach, a focus on priorities, solutions and impact, combined with a welcoming and supporting atmosphere, are part of the service's corporate culture. In terms of values, the service promotes professionalism and teamwork, encourages commitment and promotes respect. It also seeks to embed trust and fairness while prioritizing effective communication at all levels.

The EU Delegation in Bangkok represents the European Union in Thailand, working in close coordination with the Embassies of the EU Member States. The Delegation ensures bilateral relations with Thailand in the political, economic, trade and other co-operation areas. Additionally, it manages EU external cooperation programmes both at bilateral and regional level.

Within the EU Delegation to Thailand, operates the FPI Regional Team for Asia/Pacific (RT). Established in 2017, the RT is the hub of a wider presence of FPI in Asia, consisting of 31 staff in 7 EU delegations (China, India, Japan, South Korea, Pakistan, Indonesia, and Thailand). The RT closely cooperates with 27 EU Delegations and/or offices in the Asia/Pacific region, with FPI HQ and all relevant internal and external stakeholders to conceptualise, formulate and implement activities funded through the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument (NDICI), under the Multi Annual Financial Framework (MFF) 2021-2027, as well as the Partnership Instrument (PI) and the Instrument contributing to Stability and Peace (IcSP) under the MFF 2014-2020.

Within the RT operates a finance and contracts cell (FC cell) consisting of 8 staff (6 in Bangkok, 1 in China and 1 in India). Team spirit, a strong sense of initiative and responsibility are a common feature of all team members. The FC cell works in close contact with all EU delegations/offices in the region and with the Unit FPI.4 in HQ, which is in charge of three main areas whose overall purposes are:

- Financial management: to ensure sound financial management of operations under the responsibility of FPI, giving assurance to the Authoring Officer that transactions are legal, regular and comply with the contractual and financial rules in force;

- Budget and Accounts: to lead, oversee and report on the annual budgetary procedure in relation to all FPI-managed instruments/operations and to ensure reliability of accounts;
- Planning Reporting, Evaluation: to lead the Strategic Planning and Programming cycle, report on results and performance, evaluate outcomes, manage ABAC/CRIS and OPSYS systems access rights and provide support.

The Unit also acts as focal point for relations with other Institutions, internal briefing coordination and administration of FPI staff missions.
