2. ACTION SUMMARY

This 18-month exceptional assistance measure seeks to support the relevant government entities to progressively strengthen processes for the reintegration of ex-associates, as defined by the African Union and the Lake Chad Basin Commission\(^1\) in the Far North region of Cameroon, ensuring strong government ownership of the process in line with the mandate of the National Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Committee (NDDRC). More specifically, the action will support the NDDRC to develop procedures, strategies and work plans for the holistic implementation of reintegration processes in the Far North, including capacity building of local and national authorities, education and training on the empowerment of ex-associates, psychological support, child protection and gender mainstreaming. Specific support will also be provided to improve living conditions of ex-associates at the transitional centres.

\(^1\) The term ex-associate is used broadly, by the African Union and the Lake Chad Basin Commission, to refer to all persons who, regardless of age, gender, alliances and circumstances that led to their involvement, have lived under Boko Haram’s control for a period of time, without presuming or prejudging the nature of their relationship with Boko Haram, and who have voluntarily surrendered to the authorities to be rehabilitated and reintegrated.
This generic term therefore includes ex-combatants, former-hostages, wives and children of Boko Haram members, and persons who played auxiliary roles (informants, recruiters, supply workers, smugglers, telephone operators, etc.) in Boko Haram camps.
The action also aims at consolidating peace at the community level by strengthening social cohesion and resilience building and promotion of community acceptance and reduction of stigmatisation of ex-associates that are either already based within communities or may return following formal reintegration processes. Particular attention will be paid to protection needs for children formerly associated with armed groups. Support will be provided for livelihoods, rehabilitation, and the construction of small-scale community infrastructure, as well as strengthening health services and community awareness. The action could also contribute to paving the way for transitional justice\(^2\).

3. BACKGROUND AND RATIONALE

3.1 BACKGROUND

Cameroon faces serious peace and stability challenges, including persistent terrorist threats from Boko Haram and Islamic State West Africa Province (ISWAP) in the Far North region, within the Lake Chad Basin. Violence coming from border areas along the Nigerian frontier and around the islands of Lake Chad in the Far North has created a persistent social, political, security and humanitarian crisis, deepening instability and holding back economic growth. Attacks are not only limited to clashes with government security forces but are also carried out on nearby communities to amass wealth and resources such as money and cattle, as well as a means of kidnapping both men and women including as a mode of forced recruitment.

Cameroon’s Far North region is historically characterised by environmental and development challenges, high levels of illiteracy and underemployment, lack of basic services, ineffective governance, mistrust of security forces, and episodes of inter-communal violence caused by competition over decreasing natural resources and interreligious conflicts, including recent attacks against Christian communities. The Far North Region and the Lake Chad Basin is also an area prone to criminal activities, banditry and all sorts of trafficking, the latter facilitated by the geostrategic position at the crossroads of significant communication routes between Cameroon, Chad, and Nigeria. These factors have contributed to creating fertile ground for the recruitment of vulnerable persons into non-state armed groups who have turned this region into a fallback zone and recruitment pool. A wide range of individuals are associated with Boko Haram and ISWAP.

To respond to the persistent threats, the National Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Committee (NDDRC) was established by Presidential decree in November 2018, mandated to coordinate reintegration pathways to ex-associates. Progress has been made to deliver on these commitments in the Far North region. However, deficits in the formal process to support ex-associates and communities has resulted in unregulated and ineffective processes of return. There is a need to support both formal channels for reintegration of ex-associates as well as community engagement in areas ex-associates are known to be returning to independently and to offer them viable alternatives to terrorist and other criminal activities.

\(^2\) Gender considerations, human-rights based approaches and conflict sensitivity will be fully mainstreamed in the action as well as respect for child protection and children human rights.
3.2 RATIONALE FOR CRISIS RESPONSE ACTIONS UNDER THE RAPID RESPONSE PILLAR OF THE NEIGHBOURHOOD, DEVELOPMENT AND INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION INSTRUMENT

The instability and social, political, security and humanitarian crisis in the Far North region marked by numerous incidents linked to the activities of non-state armed groups, constituting an exceptional and unforeseen situation in the sense of Article 4(4) (a) of the NDICI Regulation. An adequate response cannot be provided under any other European Union Instrument due to the urgency with which the funds are required and due to available resources already being firmly committed.

Annex IV, paragraph 1, second paragraph, point (h) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947 specifically provides for the use of the NDICI rapid response pillar to support (h) support for civilian measures related to the demobilisation and reintegration of former combatants and their families into civil society, and where appropriate their repatriation, as well as measures to address the situation of child soldiers and female combatants.

6.4 PERFORMANCE AND RESULTS MONITORING AND REPORTING

The day-to-day technical and financial monitoring of the implementation of this action will be a continuous process and part of the implementing partner’s responsibilities. To this aim, the implementing partner shall establish a permanent internal, technical and financial monitoring system for the action and elaborate regular progress reports (not less than annual) and final report. Each report shall provide an accurate account of implementation of the action, difficulties encountered, changes introduced, as well as the degree of achievement of its results (outputs and outcomes) as measured by corresponding indicators, using as reference the Logframe matrix. The report shall be laid out in such a way as to allow monitoring of the means envisaged and employed and of the budget details for the action.
