COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION

of 23.9.2026

on an exceptional assistance measure regarding Syria

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 September 2024 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union[1], and in particular Article 110(1) thereof,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) 2021/947 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 June 2021 establishing the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument – Global Europe, amending and repealing Decision No 466/2014/EU and repealing Regulation (EU) 2017/1601 and Council Regulation (EC, Euratom) No 480/2009[2], and in particular Article 23(1) and (6) thereof,

Whereas:

(1) The first EU-Syria high-level political dialogue in May 2026 signalled a new phase of EU-Syria engagement and reiterated the EU's interest in a stable and secure Syria contributing to regional stability. Syria has seen historical changes since the fall of the Assad regime. At the same time, the security context remains highly volatile and its transition fragile. Although law and order have improved in some regions, violence remains a significant concern for a vast majority of the population and parts of the Syrian territory are still affected by conflict or at risk thereof. Armed groups and violent extremist factions, notably in the Northwest, remain active, escaping the full control of the Syrian Transitional Authorities. There is a need to avoid a possible security gap in the aftermath of conflict, consolidate early gains, address challenges and prevent reversals. In this context, an inclusive political transition that takes into account the need for transitional justice remains equally critical, as it constitutes a main channel to address tensions or frustrations that can emerge when expectations for change are not met fast enough. The present situation makes it necessary to adopt an exceptional assistance measure regarding Syria.

(2) In order to ensure the implementation of the measure, it is necessary to adopt a financing decision in accordance with Article 110(2) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2024/2509 ('the Financial Regulation').

[2] OJ L 209, 14.6.2021, p. 1, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/reg/2021/947/oj.

(3) The planned assistance is to comply with the conditions and procedures set out by the restrictive measures[3] adopted pursuant to Article 215 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

(4) The objective of the measure set out in this Decision is to contribute to strengthening the rule of law, civil security, stabilisation and inclusive and accountable democratic processes in Syria, in order to remedy situations of urgency, emerging crisis, crisis and post-crisis as referred to in Article 4(4), point (a), of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.

(5) In accordance with points (d), (f) and (n) of Annex IV, paragraph 1, third subparagraph, of Regulation (EU) 2021/947, the activities set out in this Decision will support the delivery of training of Syrian police in accordance with international policing standards and promote related regional cooperation between Syria and Jordan, as well as provide support to the legislative, electoral and constitutional processes required of the transition.

(6) The effectiveness of the Union response to the situation referred to in recital 1 depends on the rapid and flexible implementation of an exceptional assistance measure of limited duration in accordance with Article 23(6) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.

(7) The measure provided for in this Decision is complementary to assistance provided under other Union short-term or long-term external assistance instruments. No fully adequate response can be provided under those instruments to the specific needs being addressed. Therefore, an effective response is required to enable early action in accordance with Article 4(4) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.

(8) The measure provided for in this Decision is consistent with the Union strategic policy framework for Syria. Synergies and complementarities are expected with other Union interventions, as detailed in point 7 of the Annex.

(9) It is necessary to allow for the payment of interest due for late payment on the basis of Article 116(5) of the Financial Regulation.

(10) In order to allow for flexibility in the implementation of the measure, it is appropriate to determine changes which should not be considered substantial for the purposes of Article 110(5) of the Financial Regulation.

(11) Pursuant to Article 62(1), first subparagraph, point (c), of the Financial Regulation and Article 26(1) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947, indirect management is to be used for the implementation of the measure.

(12) The Commission is to ensure a level of protection of the financial interests of the Union with regard to persons and entities entrusted with the implementation of Union funds by indirect management as provided for in Article 157(3) of the Financial Regulation. To that end, and before a contribution agreement can be signed, such persons and entities are to be subject to an assessment of their systems and procedures in accordance with Article 157(4) of the Financial Regulation and, if necessary, to appropriate supervisory measures in accordance with Article 157(5) of the Financial Regulation.

[3] See www.sanctionsmap.eu. Note that the sanctions map is an IT tool for identifying the sanctions regimes. The source of the sanctions stems from legal acts published in the Official Journal (OJ). In case of discrepancy, the OJ prevails.

(13) It is necessary to authorise the award of grants without a call for proposals and to provide for the conditions for awarding those grants in accordance with Article 198, point (a), of the Financial Regulation.

(14) The European Parliament and the Council have been informed of the exceptional assistance measure to be adopted by this Decision, in accordance with Article 25(3) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947,
