COMMISSION IMPLEMENTING DECISION

of 1.7.2022

on an exceptional assistance measure regarding Bosnia and Herzegovina

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 July 2018 on the financial rules applicable to the general budget of the Union, amending Regulations (EU) No 1296/2013, (EU) No 1301/2013, (EU) No 1303/2013, (EU) No 1304/2013, (EU) No 1309/2013, (EU) No 1316/2013, (EU) No 223/2014, (EU) No 283/2014, and Decision No 541/2014/EU and repealing Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 966/2012<sup>1</sup>, and in particular Article 110 thereof,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) 2021/947 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 9 June 2021 establishing the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument – Global Europe, amending and repealing Decision No 466/2014/EU and repealing Regulation (EU) 2017/1601 and Council Regulation (EC, Euratom) No 480/2009<sup>2</sup>, and in particular Article 23(6) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) For the past year, Bosnia and Herzegovina has faced one of the most serious challenges to its state unity and sovereignty since the end of the conflict in 1995. Republika Srpska entity political representatives have been blocking political institutions and have started a process to withdraw the Republika Srpska entity from State-level institutions. Institutional paralysis has delayed the 2021 State budget from being adopted up to now (although this is now in process) and has been used to call into question the holding of general elections, scheduled for October 2022. While the situation has improved recently thanks to high level EU engagement, these developments have however further accelerated the general polarisation among the communities of Bosnia and Herzegovina and renew fears of conflict amongst ordinary citizens. The current situation is the result of many years of divisive rhetoric from nationalist leaders pitting ethnic groups against each other. Against this backdrop, the EU together with the United Nations, the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, and the Council of Europe are working in an informal policy dialogue group to support Bosnian authorities and civil society to promote trust building and reconciliation. Since then, the geopolitical polarisation resulting from Russia's unprovoked and unjustified aggression against Ukraine, and Republika Srpska's close ties with Russia, has further enhanced Bosnia and Herzegovina's fragility. The present situation makes it necessary to adopt an exceptional assistance measure regarding Bosnia and Herzegovina.
- (2) In order to ensure the implementation of the measure, it is necessary to adopt a financing decision. Article 110 of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046 ('the Financial Regulation') establishes detailed rules on financing decisions.

- (3) The planned assistance is to comply with the conditions and procedures set out by the restrictive measures<sup>3</sup> adopted pursuant to Article 215 TFEU.
- (4) The objective of the measure set out in this Decision is to build a critical mass for broader reconciliation processes in Bosnia and Herzegovina in order to remedy exceptional and unforeseen situations as referred to in Article 4(4)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.
- (5) In accordance with points (a), (f) and (q) of Annex IV, paragraph 1, second paragraph of Regulation (EU) 2021/947, the activities set out in this Decision will involve the creation of a peacebuilding network to bolster cooperation between relevant local activists across the country and enable their involvement in broader policy processes, the mapping and ranking of communities to be targeted and assistance regarding public communication and outreach.
- (6) The effectiveness of the Union response to the situation referred to in recital 1 depends on the rapid and flexible implementation of an exceptional assistance measure of limited duration in accordance with Article 23(6) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.
- (7) The measure provided for in this Decision is complementary to assistance provided under other Union short-term or long-term external assistance instruments. No fully adequate response can be provided under those instruments to the specific needs being addressed. Therefore, an effective response is required to enable early action in accordance with Article 4(4) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947.
- (8) The measure provided for in this Decision is consistent with the Union strategic policy framework for Bosnia and Herzegovina. Synergies and complementarities are expected with other Union interventions, as detailed in point 7 of the Annex.
- (9) In order to address the challenges facing Bosnia and Herzegovina, it is necessary to use indirect management for the implementation of the measure.
- (10) The Commission is to ensure a level of protection of the financial interests of the Union with regard to entities and persons entrusted with the implementation of Union funds by indirect management as provided for in Article 154(3) of the Financial Regulation. To this end, such entities and persons are to be subject to an assessment of their systems and procedures in accordance with Article 154(4) of the Financial Regulation<sup>4</sup> and, if necessary, to appropriate supervisory measures in accordance with Article 154(5) of the Financial Regulation before a contribution agreement can be signed.
- (11) It is necessary to allow for the payment of interest due for late payment on the basis of Article 116(5) of the Financial Regulation.
- (12) In order to allow for flexibility in the implementation of the measure, it is appropriate to define changes which should not be considered substantial for the purposes of Article 110(5) of the Financial Regulation.
- (13) The European Parliament and the Council have been informed of the exceptional assistance measure to be adopted by this Decision, in accordance with Article 25(3) of Regulation (EU) 2021/947,
