COMMISSION DECISION

of 5.12.2023

on the financing of the annual work programme 2024 for information outreach on EU external relations

on the financing of the annual work programme 2024 for information outreach on EU external relations

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU),

Whereas:

(1) In order to ensure the implementation of information outreach on EU external relations, carried out by the Commission, it is necessary to adopt an annual financing decision, which constitutes the annual work programme for 2024.

(2) The envisaged assistance is to comply with the conditions and procedures set out by the restrictive measures adopted pursuant to Article 215 TFEU2.

(3) The Commission has underlined3 the importance of informing the public in EU Member States and third countries of activities carried out in the area of external relations in order to increase the visibility and understanding of the European Union external action, including the EU’s cooperation with international organisations.

(4) Under the institutional framework of the Lisbon Treaty, Article 188 Q, the EU delegations play a crucial role in communicating the EU’s values, policies and results towards third countries and international organisations.

(5) Enhancing communications and public diplomacy capacity is a priority of the Global Strategy for the European Union’s Foreign and Security Policy4 and forms an integral part of the EU external communication notably as regards combatting the increase of disinformation about the EU by third states and non-state actors.

(6) The objectives pursued by the work programme are to enhance communications and public diplomacy in order to ensure that third country audiences, mainly through the EU Delegations’ outreach, are informed about major EU policies.

5 Treaty of Lisbon
It is necessary to allow for the payment of interest due for late payment on the basis of Article 116(5) of the Financial Regulation.

In order to allow for flexibility in the implementation of the work programme, it is appropriate to allow changes which should not be considered substantial for the purposes of Article 110(5) of the Financial Regulation.

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

The work programme

The annual financing decision, constituting the annual work programme for the implementation of the information outreach on EU external relations for 2024, as set out in the Annex, is adopted.

Article 2

Union contribution

The maximum Union contribution for the implementation of the programme for 2024 is set at EUR 27 063 528, and shall be financed from the appropriations entered in the following line of the general budget of the Union: budget line 14 20 04 03.

The appropriations provided for in the first paragraph may also cover interest due for late payment.

The implementation of this Decision is subject to the availability of the appropriations provided for in the draft general budget of the Union for 2024 following the adoption of that budget by the budgetary authority or as provided for in the system of provisional twelfths.

Article 3

Flexibility clause

Cumulated changes to the allocations to specific actions not exceeding 20% of the maximum Union contribution set in Article 2, first paragraph, of this Decision shall not be considered to be substantial for the purposes of Article 110(5) of Regulation (EU, Euratom) 2018/1046, where those changes do not significantly affect the nature of the actions and the objective of the work programme. The increase of the maximum Union contribution set in Article 2, first paragraph, of this Decision shall not exceed 20%.

The authorising officer responsible may apply the changes referred to in the first paragraph. Those changes shall be applied in accordance with the principles of sound financial management and proportionality.
